

Northwest Indian Bar Association

Renew Your Membership in the National Award-Winning Northwest Indian Bar Association!

The Northwest Indian Bar Association (NIBA) is a non-profit organization of Indian attorneys, judges and advocates in Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and the Yukon Territory, which aspires to improve the legal and political landscape for the Pacific Northwest Indian community. The purposes and goals of NIBA are:

- To represent and foster the education and welfare of Native American attorneys, paralegals and tribal court personnel of the Pacific Northwest;
- To provide role models and mentors in the legal profession for Indian people, particularly Native American youth and law students; and
- To encourage and promote pro bono legal work and civic involvement that benefits Indian people on reservations and in urban areas throughout the Pacific Northwest.

To join NIBA, please complete this form and send it along with your 2007 dues to: Northwest Indian Bar Association, c/o Victor J. Torres, 1201 Pacific Avenue, Suite 2100, PO Box 1157, Tacoma, WA 98401.
